

FELDENKRAIS GUILD® of North America
E2.3.1.2 CONTINUING COMPETENCE

Ends

It is the vision of the Feldenkrais Guild of North America (“FGNA”) that all certified practitioners be highly competent in their practice of the Feldenkrais Method[®] of somatic education.

1. Continuing Professional Practice Requirements

- 1.1. Each practitioner certified by FGNA is required, at least annually, to certify that she/he engaged in at least 100 hours (prorated for periods less than one year) of professional practice of the Feldenkrais Method.
- 1.2. No professional practice hours are required for:
 - 1.2.1. Initial certification;
 - 1.2.2. Provisional certification; or
 - 1.2.3. Practitioners with twenty cumulative years of certification

2. Continuing Competence Plan

Reflective Practice is “the capacity to reflect on action so as to engage in a process of continuous learning,” which, according to the originator of the term, is “one of the defining characteristics of professional practice”.

2.1. Using a reflective practice approach, each practitioner certified by the Feldenkrais Guild is required, at least annually, to:

- 2.1.1. Reflect on the plan of the previous year and certify that she/he has completed it (where applicable)
 - 2.1.2. Complete a self-assessment based on the FGNA Feldenkrais Practitioner Profile or the International Feldenkrais[®] Federation (IFF) Competency Profile
 - 2.1.3. Identify learning needs
 - 2.1.4. Write a plan which includes at least twenty hours of learning
 - 2.1.5. Certify that she/he intends to implement the current plan
- 2.2. Practitioners shall retain copies of their plans for three years. FGNA reserves the right to review a practitioner’s plans.

3. Exemptions

Practitioners with twenty cumulative years or more of practice are exempt from Continuing Competence Plan requirements.

4. Limitations

- 4.1. For the purposes of this policy, where “Guild” is mentioned in the IFF Competency Profile, it is intended to refer to FGNA.
- 4.2. The Executive Director has the authority to grant waivers.
- 4.3. Effective for practitioners certifying for January 1, 2013 and later.

ⁱ Schön, D. (1983) The Reflective Practitioner, How Professionals Think In Action, Basic Books.

First date adopted: 7/16/2011 by FGNA Board of Directors

Last revision date: 2/22/2016 by FGNA Board of Directors